Please feel free to remain seated during the hymns

There will be a Fellowship Tea in the Parish Halls following the service today. You are warmly invited to join us!

The Craft Group are knitting poppies to be displayed in the Church on Remembrance Sunday as it will be the 100th anniversary of the end of World War 1. If any of the congregation would like to help, the pattern is available in both vestibules of the Church. The poppies can be left in the church or given to one of the craft group members.

The Parishioner – The next edition will be published in September but members of the congregation are encouraged to submit articles now. We would welcome contributions from Church groups and organisations, community news, devotional material and book reviews.

Friends of St Ninians Old who would like to support the ongoing work of the congregation can do so via Give.net Check our website for details.
